Dear Brethren:

I deeply appreciate the kind invitation offered me to come and work with you in a gospel meeting in 1965. I will be able to schedule the meeting as suggested during the first full week of October, 1965.

As of now, I would like to make the following suggestion; please consider starting the meeting on Monday night after the first Sunday in October and continue it through the next Sunday night. This would enable me to give you a full seven days but would also leave the first Sunday open to be here or wherever I am working at the time. To schedule two Sundays for one meeting is the same as giving two full weeks from the standpoint of my local work.

Please give this matter your consideration and inform me of your decision. My gratitude is expressed again for the invitation. I send all of you my very best wishes.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
